

PRIVACY AND COOKIE STATEMENT

We respect the privacy of our visitors to our website and ensure that the personal information that you provide is treated confidentially. Processing of data is done in a manner that is in accordance with the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulation (AVG or GDPR).

Personal information

Face the Future can receive personal data about you if you contact us when filling in a contact form, and we may keep a record of that correspondence. This information is only accessible for Face the Future itself and will not be shared with other parties. Registration is not required to view our website.

Cookies

Face the Future uses only essential cookies to optimize the functionality of our website. We don't use cookies to collect and process personal user data.

A cookie is a small file, which is placed on your computer's hard drive. Essential cookies are placed on your computer's hard drive at the moment you visit the website, and they help making a website usable by enabling basic functions like page navigation and access to secure areas on the websites. The website cannot function properly without these cookies. Non-essential cookies need permission to be added to your computer's hard drive. Since Face the Future does not use non-essential cookies, this is not applicable.

Access, adapt or delete data.

You have the right to view, correct or delete your personal data. See our contact page how to contact us. To prevent misuse, we may ask you to identify yourself adequately. Information about switching on and off and removing cookies can be found in the instructions and/or by using the Help function of your browser.

Safety

We take the protection of your data seriously and take appropriate measures to prevent misuse, loss, unauthorized disclosures and to prevent unauthorized changes. If you have the impression that your data is not properly secured or there are indications of misuse, or if you would like more information about the security of the collected personal data by us, please contact us through our contact page.

face
the future

